

PRESS RELEASE

International Charity Art Exhibition

London based Scottish artist Dr Suzi Morris is pleased to be auctioning a painting in support of CamSight at the 5th Charity Exhibition, St Barnabas, Mill Road, Cambridge CB1 2DB

FREE ADMISSION

Exhibition Opening times 20 - 24 March 2018
Tues 20th – Fri 23th 10am-4pm | Sat 24th 10am-2pm

Private View Tuesday 20th 5.00 pm – 10.00 pm

Blue Quasispecies 2017, Oil on aluminum 61 x 46 cm

"Showcasing the collective artwork of established and emerging artists, 'From the Studio Floor' is the fifth in a series of exhibitions dedicated to bringing the new works of artists working in the area together to let them show a selection of new unseen paintings, sculptures, drawings and sculptures." Jessica Oliver, Curator and Founder

Exhibiting artists:

Alexandra Oliver, Ania Hobson, Anna Boon, Anne Marie Stijelja, Ben Brooks, Cara Emma Fenwick, Carmella Lorusso, Clarke Avery, Eigil Nordstrom, Elizabetta Mutty, Fabiana Di Mascio, Felicity Meachem, Georgina Hollinshead, Gus Farnes, Jake Francis, Jessica Oliver, Jemal Gugunava, Jill Meager, Jim Racine, JMF Masson, John D Edwards, Julia Keennan, Kate Bailey, Keith Simpson, Kelly Briggs, Laura Leahy, Libby January, Luciana Rosado, Kurtis Perrigo, Luke Walker, Marion Edwards, Mark Batty, Mark Van Heygen, Mel Fraser, Meryem Siemmond, Nick Claiden, Phoebe Cripps, Rafe Pugh, Rob Lawrence, Robin Johnston, Spadge Hopkins, Susan Plover, Suzi Morris, Wan Lin Chang, Zoe Hoare.

In order that Cam Sight may carry on its vital role as part of the Cambridgeshire landscape that focuses on improving the lives of blind and partially sighted people, it needs to continue to attract contributions. These will enable visually impaired people to embrace new technologies and opportunities in the future. Admission is free so please join us if you can.